Note: The Plan to Remedy was a compliance program through the CDE. Individuals enrolled in this program working to earn a CLAD or BCLAD Certificate were considered to be appropriately assigned until July 1, 2005. After July 2005, CTC no longer accepts enrollment in a Plan to Remedy for appropriate authorization to serve English learners.

¹ There may be restrictions to the grade level and subject area(s) that may be taught in each of the settings – check document for specific authorization. All CTC-issued documents with the exception of the multiple subject, single subject, and education specialist teaching credentials require a prerequisite teaching credential.

² These certificates or authorizations are no longer initially issued but remain valid and appropriate to serve English learners.

³ Not all education specialist teaching credentials include an EL authorization. Check the document before assigning a teacher to serve ELs.

⁵ Provisions for this option, other than designated subject credentials in vocational education and special subjects and services credential with a special class authorization, sunset on January 1, 2008.

Instruction is limited to SDAIE instruction in a departmentalized classroom in the subject and grade authorized by the individual's basic credential and instruction in a self-contained classroom in which the teacher is responsible for instructing the same students. Holders of vocational and special subject designated subjects credentials in vocational education and special subjects and services credential with a special class authorization are restricted to teaching SDAIE only.

Unlike CLAD, the CCSD does not include the teaching English language development in a departmentalized setting.

⁶ The SB 1969 Certificate no longer may be issued by an employing agency but remains valid. CTC stopped registering SB 1969 Certificates on July 1, 2003. CTC will not register any of the certificates after July 1, 2003 regardless of the circumstances. An SB 1969 Certificate that was not registered with CTC is still valid. The individual will need to show the certificate to their current employer and will also need to provide it to any new employers in the future.

Unlike CLAD, the CCSD does not include teaching English language development (ELD) in a departmentalized setting.
